Harvest Initiation:
Setting Intention for the Autumnal Equinox
A Three Part Discourse

PART III
Integration of Love-Wisdom-Power

When we are face to face with truth, the point of view of Krishna, Buddha, Christ, or any other Prophet, is the same. When we look at life from the top of the mountain, there is no limitation; there is the same immensity. ~Hazrat Inayat Khan

In the third of this three part series, we will discuss the Integration of Love-Wisdom-Power through the 10 stages of your soul's journey to Harvest. We will combine these with the 12 ways we judge ourselves and thus block our access to Truth, and we will show how the Master Builder #22 (10+12) may serve as the Key to Ascension Consciousness.

We have been teaching for some time about the transformative process of balancing sacred Trinities. The primary trinity of incarnate beings is Love-Wisdom-Power. Now we will look at the energies prevalent in Love-Wisdom-Power during the Equinox.

Keynotes of these energies:

Expression of Feelings
Creative Communication of Spirit

Effectiveness
Balanced communication

Justice and Discernment
Joy and happiness is Power

The numerology of these three aura-soma is 10. 10 is endings and beginnings. It is a new place and a new space. It represents the Wheel of Karma and the opportunity we each have to choose a new way of being in the world. It represents moving into the Path of Dharma.

There are many ways that the energies of Love-Wisdom-Power may be activated and integrated through the Equinox experience, for example:

Affirmations based on tarot energies:

- ❖ I am opening to a deeper Love. I connect my true soul essence to Source. I gift my sacrosanct self with the truce of self-forgiveness, I am an immaculate soul. From this foundation, I attract by the Law of Attraction in the Universe, all creative manifestation of Abundance into my here and now.
- ❖ I access innate Wisdom from the Throne of Consciousness, my soul.
- ❖ I am a being of great power. I have all I need to navigate this journey into the Heart of the Divine. In all things I meet on the exterior, I see my own reflection, my own lessons, and I Am protected by Spirit.

Intentions based on the aura-soma energies:

- ❖ At this time of Equinox, I am integrating Love-Wisdom-Power to create the greatest vision of my life that I may imagine. In this sacred way, I am activating my own unique spirituality to serve humanity through Divine Love.

Assistance of the Ascended Masters:

I call upon Lord Melchizedek, to open my heart to deeper love so that I may Know my Soul. I am open to creative communication of spirit and I am willing to express who I am to those willing to know me at depth.

I call upon the Ascended Masters Lady Portia and St. Germain to assist me in accessing my power as a soul of conscious clarity in this time of great shift and acceleration. I give thanks for their assistance in transmuting all things to Light. From inner illumination, I exercise discernment, which is power. From power, I radiate joy and happiness.

I call upon the angelic kingdom to open me to my divine mission and purpose with effectiveness of action, with balanced communication and with guidance in every moment of time.

In gratitude and thanks, I am One with the Divine.

When we add Body-Mind-Spirit energies of 12 (see Part II of this series) to Love-Wisdom-Power energies of 10, what is the total? It is 22. This synchronous choice of tarot was by no means accidental. It represents the true dynamics operating for each and every one of you these days of Harvesting in the New Way of Conscious Creation. You may each shift into the Master Builder of your own Life. Twenty-two in numerology is the number of the master builder.

From Wikipedia:

The 22 is the most powerful of all numbers. It is called the Master Builder. The 22 can turn the most ambitious of dreams into reality. It is potentially the most successful of all numbers. It has many of the inspirational insights of the 11, combined with the practicality and methodical nature of the 4. It is unlimited, yet disciplined. It sees the archetype, and brings it down to earth in some material form. It has big ideas, great plans, idealism, leadership, and enormous self-confidence. The 22 serves the world in a practical way.

In order to arrive at the 22 energies of Master Builder of your own lives, you must be willing to look into the “spotless mirror” of Truth, thereby knowing your own soul at depth. What prevents you from knowing yourselves from the heart (Gnosis) is the activity of judgment and the emotion of guilt. We will identify 12 common ways that incarnate souls judge themselves, and thus become mired in illusion.

The 12 Elements of Judging: (4 Trinities)

- 1) Judging the Self.
- 2) Judging others (the outward aspect of judging the self).
- 3) Judging your experience.

- 4) Judging your thoughts .
- 5) Judging your words.
- 6) Judging your actions.

- 7) Judging your vision.
- 8) Judging your hearing .
- 9) Judging your sensations.

- 10) Judging your emotions.
- 11) Judging your body.
- 12) Judging the quality and quantity of Love.

If you are pained by external things, it is not they that disturb you, but your own judgment of them. And it is in your power to wipe out that judgment now.

~Marcus Aurelius

Well, you may ask, what is wrong with judgment? This is an important question because if we begin by “judging” judgment, it becomes rather difficult to move into Gnosis at all. Judgment must be understood in a new way. Some of the greatest challenges you must overcome on any true spiritual path are duality and fear-based judgment and the emotion of guilt. Guilt and judgment play a very large role in your energetic structure until you release it through Love-Wisdom-Power. Judgment does not necessarily imply right or wrong and neither does guilt:

Let us look at the definition of judgment:

judgment noun

1. The act or process of judging; the formation of an opinion after consideration or deliberation.
2.
 - a. The mental ability to perceive and distinguish relationships; discernment:
 - b. The capacity to form an opinion by distinguishing and evaluating:
 - c. The capacity to assess situations or circumstances and draw sound conclusions; good sense.
3. An opinion or estimate formed after consideration or deliberation.
4. An assertion of something believed.
5. A misfortune believed to be sent by God as punishment for sin.

This is very closely associated with the definition of Guilt:

Guilt: noun

1. feelings (emotion) of culpability especially for imagined offenses or from a sense of inadequacy;
2. morbid self-reproach often manifest in marked preoccupation with the moral correctness of one's behavior.

Judgment for most incarnate humans, is based on emotion and on flawed beliefs. The capacity to assess situations and draw sound conclusions, when undertaken by the balanced trinity of love-wisdom-power, is a very different capacity than that which you are using now to judge yourself. You are judging yourself from flawed belief, you are judging yourself as “right” or “wrong” and we know that you now understand that in this realm of consciousness, there is no right or wrong, there is only Truth.

You see, our dear ones, judgment is a process of forming an opinion, it is discernment, it is the capacity to assess situations and draw sound conclusions. These are the Ascended Master definitions. Very often, your definition of judgment is based on an assertion of something believed. It is often not based on discernment and sound conclusions. Judgment is also often based on the fear of punishment by a force of retribution. This also is not based on discernment and sound conclusions. Belief, you see, is not Absolute Truth. We, in the Ascended Master dimensions, do not hold belief – our beliefs have all been purified and restored to Truth. We do not “believe” in God. We Know God. We do not “believe” in Ascension, We Are Ascended. We do not “believe” in the Way, we Serve the Way in Truth.

An erroneous and detrimental use of judgment is defined by the Masters as “belief in belief” – that which We do not hold. This type of judgment is anti-Gnosis. A very common form of this is seeing God as a destructive and punishing force. (This is the Ascended Master definition of antagonism: anti-agnosticism or opposition – the very nature of duality.)

Likewise, you cannot draw a sound conclusion, you cannot discern Truth, when you are feeling morbid self-reproach and culpability – you see, this is guilt. Guilt is not a rational energetic emotion, (one based on reason and sound conclusion). To illustrate, you see, feelings of love are usually rational energetic emotion because they are based on Truth. When you feel the emotion of love, it is usually based on the Truth of Love. When you feel the emotion of guilt, it is usually based on morbid self reproach and self condemnation. This is not Truth, for you are never condemned and you are never reproached by the Divine. In the Heart of the Divine, you are Immaculate Beings of Light. In the Heart of the Divine, you are Unconditionally Loved.

We wish for you to see the connection between organized religion’s definition of judgment and guilt. Definition number 5 of judgment is: A misfortune believed to be sent by God as punishment for sin – this fits quite nicely with the definition of guilt as “imagined offences” and “marked preoccupation with the moral correctness of one’s behavior”. God does not send punishment, nor does God judge. You judge, your own soul judges after physical transition, but this judgment is based on true discernment and not on irrational or flawed beliefs. For many of you, guilt is based on your belief that somehow, you are responsible for All choices – yours as well as others. Thus, if you would only do the “moral” thing or the “right” thing, you will not be judged as wrong, and you will not feel wrong and you will thus, be free from the irrational feeling of guilt.

Perhaps you know that emotions are energy that provide a type of “fuel” for your subtle and gross anatomies. Guilt, in this sense, is a toxin. Guilt leads to unworthiness, then to despair, then to confusion, depression, self-condemnation and a cycling over and over into health abuse. If the cycle is not stopped and restored to emotional balance, one common physical symptom is that the liver mal-functions and the Will to live (live-r)– is lost.¹ There is no cure, other than transplant, at the present time, for liver failure. We will suggest that a massive failure of Earth's liver may occur if the energies of guilt, based on false belief, are not purified within the next span of years. Where is Earth's liver you may ask? It is in the Middle East. Ponder that if you will. (Lebanon-Israel-Valley of the Great Rift (between Israel-Jordan), eastern horn of Egypt, River Orontes² in Lebanon-Syria).

How does one purify false belief? Perhaps by looking into the spotless mirror of Truth, through the trinity of Love-Wisdom-Power. Where you hold guilt and judgment is where you do not conceive of yourselves as Immaculate Beings of Light. One way to examine this is to look at your beliefs around the stages of life. As we have stated in Part II of this discourse, in the Harvest Initiation, we begin at conception and move rapidly through ten stages until we arrive at Death/Rebirth.

You may look into the spotless mirror of your soul and ascertain, by deep Gnosis, what is it I feel, I know, I experience in my Heart about Love at these three stages of my incarnate existence:

- Conception
- Gestation
- Birth

What is it I feel, I know, I experience in my Heart about Wisdom during the next three phases of incarnate existence:

- Infancy/Early Childhood
- Adolescence
- Higher Learning – University

What is it I feel, I know, I experience in my Heart about Power during the next three phases of my incarnate existence:

- Independence – Establishing our place on the exterior planes of life
- Power – True self knowledge
- Surrender – Letting go of outcomes

For you see, our dear ones, when you examine these three trinities of your existence without judgment and without guilt, you may enter into awareness about where you are

The Liver houses the body's Hun and governs fright. Its positive psycho-emotional attributes are kindness, benevolence, compassion, and generosity; its negative attributes are anger, irritability, frustration, resentment, jealousy, rage, and depression. The Liver is also called the "root of resistance to fatigue."
Whenever the Liver is not functioning properly (stagnate or excessively Hot due to suppressed emotions) the patient can experience fatigue as well as physical weakness.

holding patterns which are keeping you in stasis (meaning the slowing or stopping of normal flow of life affirming energy.)

For example, we affirm that many of your beliefs around Love were formed in your current incarnation at the pre-cognitive stages of conception, gestation and birth. “How can this be”, you may ask? “I thought love was about the experience of relationship, not a condition of biological development and immersion into the world.”

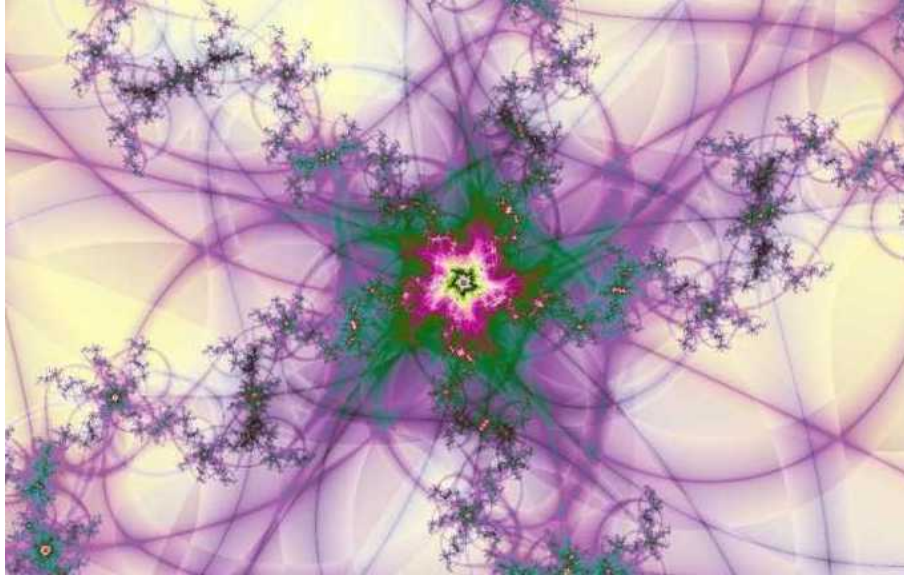

Let us suggest that Love is first and foremost, a feeling state, not an experience. Your first feeling state of love in this life occurs at the very moment of your conception! If you so desire, you can take your soul-mind into the moment of your conception and ascertain Truth: Was I loved? Was I wanted? Was I hoped for? Your soul, who chose to incarnate with your set of biological parents, knows this, for your soul was already there, looking on, feeling, sensing, knowing. (This is true even if you were adopted.)

You may use this image of Fractal Conception, to assist you in accessing your soul memory: Source: <http://home.online.no/~einarsk/GalFract/Conception.jpg>

The same feeling experience may be brought to your period of gestation in your mother's womb. What did you experience about Love at this time of your cellular formation? Did you know Love in the form of joyous anticipation? Did you feel deep maternal caring from your mother and her sense of the sacred act of creating life? Did you feel the adoration of your father, lovingly surrounding your mother in his protective arms? Or did you feel something else?

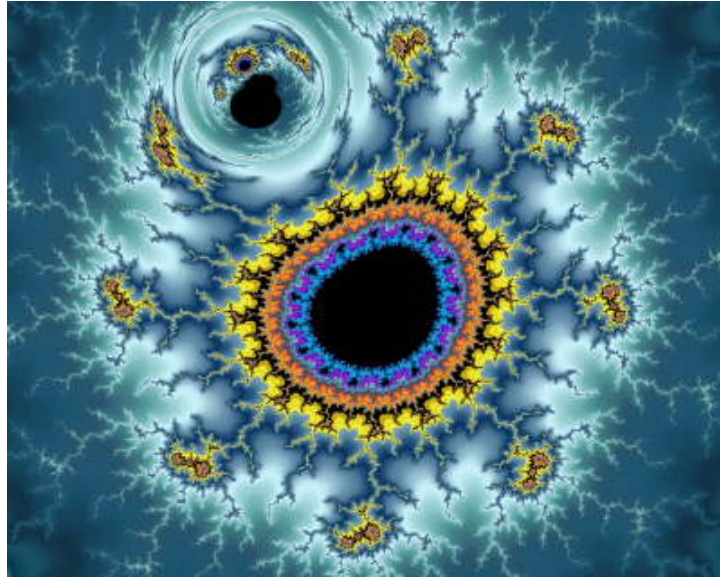

This next mandala below may be used to access your soul memories of Gestation. It is entitled: Falling into a Flower. (Source: http://lunararchives.com/emr_mandala.htm)

Likewise at your birth, were you welcomed into the world with soft and kind words of “we are so glad you are here”, “we are so honored that you chose us as your parents”, “you are the most beautiful creation in all the world.”? Were you gently laid onto the heart of your mother, to hear the heartbeat you shared as One? Were you allowed to adjust softly to the new reality you had chosen to come into? Were you revered as a soul, taking its first breath on this magnificent journey of Love? Or did you feel something else?

For these were the first feeling sensations of love or lack of love that your soul remembers about your current incarnate life. We suggest that you deeply enter into the feeling state and Know what first formative feelings of love entered into your cellular memories and subtle emotional structure.

The following fractal may assist you in remembering your birth. It is entitled: Birth of a Galaxy. (Source: http://www.imaging.robarts.ca/~lgardi/html/fractals_13.html)

Let us suggest one more thing about this “exercise of consciousness.” This exercise, if you so choose to actually do it, gives you much insight into your formative beliefs about Love. But what have we taught within this three part discourse about belief? What does this entire three part discourse begin with? Several statements about Belief. Belief, our dear ones, is not synonymous with Truth. Belief is often a product of education, experience and false expectation.

Perhaps in your case, you remember that your mother did not joyfully anticipate your arrival, that your father did not want you. What is the Truth of your gestation? Is it true that you were not Loved? You see, these series of questions we posed above are ALL based on the exterior experience of someone either loving or not loving you as a soul. This is exterior experience even though we are referring to your very early formation before you were a separate biological being. For when you enter into this dimension of 3D physicality, even at conception, the veils of forgetting who you are, begin to drop into place in your higher mind functions. When you dip into the awareness of your physical form, the higher mind begins to “mal-function” in that the soul experiences itself as separate. The ego becomes the ruler of your thoughts for quite a long period of time. This is an entire discourse in and of itself, one which we will address during the Equinox Retreat. For now, we suggest that this veiling experience has been an agreed upon condition of incarnation by the soul.

The Absolute Truth of the questions posed above is that you have been loved and you are loved and you will continue to be loved in every moment of your existence as a soul!

And of course, this means, throughout eternity! This is why we suggest the “Spotless Mirror” – for in the spotless mirror of your soul, you See and Know Truth. You see and know that no matter what exterior circumstance you chose to create, you have been loved, you are loved and you will continue to be loved in every nanosecond of your existence. IT is simply your belief that you have not been loved by someone else that creates imbalance, stasis, and lack of True Gnosis in your Now.

The Truth is that you ARE LOVE, and this love wells up from the very center of your own being,
from the core of unconditional love of self.

This does not come from the exterior. Do you understand?

The integration of this Truth of Love is one of the most powerful feelings that moves through your soul and prepares you for the Transfiguration back to an Immaculate Being of Light. This sacred and conscious activity is also known as Transubstantiation:

tran·sub·stan·ti·ate -verb (used with object),

1. to change from one substance into another; transmute.
2. Theology. to change (the bread and wine) into the body and blood of Christ in the Eucharist.

In this process of the spotless mirror, you transubstantiate your own acquired and perhaps false belief, in the finiteness of your mundane self, back to the sacredness of your infinite soul. This is the allegorical meaning of transubstantiation teaching of Christ.

Along the same vein, we suggest that perhaps contrary to your belief, your most formative feeling experience about Wisdom came into creation in the middle three trinities of infancy/childhood, adolescence and higher learning. Again, what is the belief that perhaps you incorporated (i.e. brought into the body) about your capacity to feel your innate, divine Wisdom? In infancy and early childhood, were you treated as a wise, sensate being who knew exactly what you needed in every second of time? Was this innate wisdom honored? In adolescence, were you allowed to express the wisdom of your thoughts and feelings? Was your immense wisdom ever heard? Honored? Encouraged? Nurtured? As you moved into the institutions of higher learning, were you encouraged to see and experience yourself as wise? Or were you seen as a student who is “fed” wisdom by an older learned one? Were your unique and individual ideas allowed to take flight into creative Wisdom? Or did you experience something else? This also, if actually explored by your soul-mind, can provide you with immeasurably valuable self awareness.

Again, let us suggest that you take this experience to the higher consciousness level – that no matter what you may have experienced and incorporated as a belief about your own innate wisdom, the Truth is your Soul is Wise beyond measure, you are in full possession in this very moment, of the Wisdom of the Cosmos. If you choose to embrace the Truth of who you Are and then integrate this fundamental trinity of Love-Wisdom-Power, you restore your own self back to the Truth that you are an Immaculate Being of Light.

Wisdom Symbol: (Source - <http://www.nada.kth.se/~asa/Mage/Egypt/Horus.gif>)

Let us now suggest that the true experience of Power occurs in the stages of life when you have full possession of your free will and can truly feel and exercise the fullness of your power. These are the stages of independence in adulthood which include building family, home, avocation, and community. We suggest that before this time, you are not truly able to feel the fullness of your power because you are not in fully possession of free will choice. You are limited in large part by what others “allow” you to do, to feel, to think and to experience.

As you were establishing yourself as an independent adult on the exterior planes of life, were you met with frustration and failure? Or did you receive confirmation of how perfectly you were creating your reality (i.e. being power-full)? Did you receive fair and adequate compensation for the exercise of your professional talents, your contribution to the world and your ability to impact the way things were done? As you matured into mid-life, have you fully embraced your power as creation beings? Have you felt the immeasurable power of true self- knowledge that comes from the heart? Or have you been at times in the powerless place of “I don’t know”. And if so, how long have you stayed there? And last of all, have you experienced the Truth that True Power comes from Surrender? From fully and finally letting go of your expected outcomes and of control so that the Divine has the full access to manifest miracles in your life? And perhaps the Divine is within you, so that the One manifesting miracles is your own soul? For the Truth again, is that you are Powerful beyond measure, you have the sacrosanct ability to create your reality – is this not the very activation of Power?

If you are truly willing to explore, experience, and Know your own beliefs around these stages of love-wisdom-power, to look at them in the spotless mirror of your soul, you will be prepared for the Harvest Initiation. How does Harvest Initiation at the Autumnal Equinox manifest?

In the 10th stage of Death/Rebirth HARVEST of All you have learned, experienced and cultivated over this entire cycle of consciousness.

You will receive the gift of Transfiguration – the emanation of Light from inside your own being, and you will see this in manifest form. You prepare yourself in Alignment and Balance for the Great Galactic Alignment that is manifesting now and accelerating over the next 6 years. You accept and acknowledge your own sacrosanct soul as an Immaculately Conceived Being of Light, Transformed, Transubstantiated and Transfigured back to the Source of All. And where is this Source, our dear ones? This is the last Truth with which we close this trinity discourse.

Where is the center of the Universe? For this is the Source of All.

The center of the Universe, our friends in light, is inside of you! Each one of you. Your scientists Know this to be True. The center of the Universe is everywhere and is relevant to each individual as soul-centric. This is the meaning, the Truth and the Love of what you are all aligning with now:

Universal Consciousness and the Great Galactic Alignment
The Human Soul-ar Age of Universal Consciousness

Large and small stars in harmonious coexistence.

You are part of this whole of conscious creation;
You co-exist with this brilliance;
This is inside of Your Sacred Soul.
It is yours for the Harvest.

If you so choose to integrate these trinity realities as Truth, you transubstantiate the 10 stages of life and you make a conscious choice to integrate your own 12 chakras in harmony and alignment with the Universe. You have thus unlocked the Key to your own Ascension Consciousness, the 22, Master Builder, Creative force of your own sacrosanct soul's incarnate life.

Namaste
