Please address the topic of free will and the upcoming events on the planet. What is in our greatest good to have in consciousness at this time of transition and change?

We welcome you and we are very pleased to address this topic with you as we approach shifts of the summer solstice and Cancer full moon. I am Kuthumi, the World Teacher and will be aided and assisted by many in the Hierarchy and by the Archangelic Command. This topic is of great importance at this time. In fact, there are many who believe it is the single most important issue facing humanity. Of course, underpinning all aspects of energetic reality is the vibration of Love. But we will tell you, that without your exercise of free will choice, the impact of Love is lessened and diminished.

The analogy we would like to use is this: Love is like an ocean. Your energy system is like the glass container that you may fill up with water. But to fill the container with water, you must make a choice! This is the conscious exercise of free will. You can indeed stand on the shore and look at the magnificence of the ocean, you may even enter into the water and be surrounded by the water, allowing it to flow around you and move you gently in its currents, this is all fine and good. But in order to fully experience Love, you must make a choice to take an action to bring yourself to the shore and fill your glass with water. Making a choice to fill your glass with water thus, is like making a decision to take a conscious action to accept the waters of life that sustain and carry you on your path Home. Most certainly, you are always surrounded by Love. You always have access to Love, but our dear friends in light, you must make a choice to Love. You must make a choice to increase your capacity to love every day. Free will activates your life's mission. Without this, you are tossed from one situation to the next, from one emotion to the next, from one idea to the next, without ever making a conscious choice to use your most divine of all gifts in this incarnation: the free will choice to Love!

We would like to suggest that each one of you may wish to state, with great passion and emotion, the following affirmation:

“I am a being of Light, choosing, by Divine Free Will, the path of Love.”

Yes, most divine and perfected in its simplicity. For this activates and re-minds you of why you are here at this time. And then, of course, in every moment, you must each individually make the choices which keep you on the path. This is the conjunction of the path of intention and the path of mindfulness, the topic we most recently addressed at our group meeting. To review very briefly, we will re-mind you that it is one thing to set an intention in the morning to choose the path to Love, but it is quite another to remain in mindfulness of this intention throughout the day. This is a very important intersection of energy on the eightfold path. You may state the above affirmation which sets up the energetics to Love, but then, our dear friends, you must remain in mindfulness by choosing a technique which works for you, to stay connected with your free will choice.

This is why we have on many occasions spoken to you about the mundane activities such as the check-out area of the grocery store. For in each instance you interact with another, you have the ability to make this free will choice to love. And what better time to be reminded of your choice than the check-out area of any store? This can easily be your check-point as a self reminder. For how you choose to interact with all people is of importance. Do you see through them as a means to complete your transaction? Or do you look into their eyes and acknowledge them as fellow beings of light and love? Are you impatient? Or are you grateful to have the opportunity to Love? These are things you may wish to think of when you check your mindfulness throughout the day. We repeat this example for there are many joining this group on email throughout the world at this time, and given that this is our favorite example, we wish to share it with all of you new to our discourses.

Now, we will focus on a very important aspect of free will. At this time there is an alignment of energies which has the potential to bring fifth dimensional star beings into your three dimensional reality. These fifth dimensional beings are what you would consider “extra-terrestrials”, and what many of you have been in contact with as Arcturians, Pleadians and Sirians and others. We will tell you that the interplay of energy to bring this to reality is shifting at every moment in time. What we wish for you to be aware of, is that there are many forces working to prevent this from happening.

One of the most effective sources in blocking the unification of 3D and 5D reality is the manipulation of your broadcast media and motion picture industries. We will mention that your governments have lost much credibility and thus, the media is the prime source of collective consciousness manipulation at this time. Interestingly enough, even your broadcast news stations have had credibility much questioned and doubted – a direct impact of light work. But we will tell you that a remaining bastion is working under the guise of “entertainment”, the film industry. We will remind you that every summer, near the time of the solstice, very big production movies come out to confuse and disturb the access of higher dimensional beings into mass consciousness. This usually begins with a rather benign film such as “Star Wars” and then ramps up to a very sinister and fear based film, such as the upcoming release of “War of the Worlds” (June 29th, one week after the solstice/full moon conjunction) with a very popular and high-draw actor. If any of you are “film buffs” you may easily look back over the summer film releases and see such a pattern. We will only mention a few of the films on the sinister side: “Independence Day”, “Men in Black”, and “Mars Attacks”.

What is the purpose of these films? Is it entertainment and fun? Or is there another agenda at work? We will suggest to you that as we approach the probable intersection of your 3D reality with our 5D reality, the energy and message of these films is ramped up to higher and higher levels of vibration of fear, hysteria and hatred. For the 5D beings are always represented in these large production films (with the exception of Close Encounters), as destructive and colonizing beings. What this does is polarize humanity to continue to fear what it does not understand, much like the destructive energy behind Christ’s mortal end. It also energizes humanity to attune to the vibration of fear and hatred. This is an outright (but hidden) attempt to usurp and manipulate humanity’s free will at a very critical point in time. This is why we entreat you to know what you are available for and to state it to the universe with great conviction, backed by Love for all of the light beings in the universe. For, our dear friends in light, if you make yourself available for the manipulation of your emotional bodies by these films, you are making yourself available for the direct impact of the forces of fear and darkness in your life. If you make a free will choice to go to these movies in the name of entertainment and fun, you are entering into the sphere of manipulation and control by your own free will!

Many of you wish to say: “but the good guys always win in these movies, so what is the harm?” We will tell you two things about this attitude and belief: 1) the good guys may not really be the good guys. For underneath the veneer of familiarity and the continuation of earth as you know it now, is a more sinister control plot aimed at keeping earth where it is, within reach, but not quite activated in her ascension body of Light and Love. And 2) as represented by the most recent Star Wars movie, the good guys are now being shown to be in a weakened and devastated position. If you recall the original three Star Wars movies, the good guys won over the evil at the end. But as we approached the millennium, a new set of three movies were developed that, for the first time ever, took up the “first part of the story” so that by the end of the second trilogy, (the middle of the story), you are shown the good guys as being on the losing side of the battle. This is very significant. The film industry is reacting to the increase of light and love on the planet, and is raising the stakes, so to speak.

You would think that this discussion is rather trite or mundane, but we will tell you that it is not. What is in the global mind of humanity through popular culture is a very accurate out-picturing of what is taking place on the inner and unseen realms. Even if you make the conscious choice not to actually go to these films, you are still somewhat impacted by the vibrations they create in mass consciousness. For millions of people see these movies and are stirred in their mental and emotional bodies by them. This creates a vibration that encircles and enters into earth’s energy makeup. We will tell you as an aside, that many dedicated lightworkers are also impacted in their physical bodies by these “film” vibrations, for you go in to the theaters unprotected and allow the emotional impact of loud sound, incredible high-speed visuals and violence to enter your bodies.

Now, here is the key to our discussion: as we said, even if you do not go to these films you are impacted by them. But, our dear friends in light, there exists in every situation, an opportunity for you to aid and assist the earth and humanity through Love. What you may do in service to humanity is to accept the role of light worker and transmutter of energies into the earth’s core to heal, clear and replace with Love. Thus, you may do the following thing with the vibrations remaining on earth from the Star Wars movie: in any place, space or time you find yourself in, perhaps in this very moment, you may make a free will choice to act to aid and assist humanity and the earth, by consciously accessing the residual vibrations coming from this film. You do not have to accept them into your bodies, but you may through the intention of your divine will, call them into your energy sphere (or aura) and state:

“As a being of Light, I am serving to transmute the energies of fear, hatred and violence, into Love, Joy and Kindness. I call upon my divine right as a lightworker, to aid and assist humanity and the earth, by helping to heal, clear and replace these vibrations with Love, through my energy bodies, with great grace and ease, with no harm to myself or others, to the central core the earth, to be transmuted to Love.”

Yes indeed, this is no small service. And in doing so, you are making a free will choice to love and to serve. So you see, in every situation, a great good can result, if you activate your free will choice.

Now, you may remark that this is a reactive use of your energies. But it is a necessary one. We do most assuredly encourage you to aid and assist humanity and earth through what you may call “proactive” activities also. Such activities are represented by your free will choice to meditate and balance your energy bodies every day, your free will choice to express love in the mundane circumstances of your life such as we have mentioned earlier, your free will choice to advocate for those things that you believe in and are essential to the health and well being of your environment, and your free will choice to stand in truth at all times.

We wish to excerpt two selections from recent readings because they relate so directly to this topic, one as an example of reactive free will and the other as an example of proactive will:

“You see, ultimately, this light work is a balancing act, and at all times, we work, through you, to have the primary forces of love and the upward spiral toward unification, reign supreme. But by design, we cannot stop all forces of mutated light from entering ascending planetary spheres. So that there will be an element of free will in the ascending planets, all beings must have available to them, the opportunity to choose the path of light or dark (or some in between gray place of indecision and passive accord).

As an example of this we will use the latest global disruption of the Tsunami. Now, the power behind the tsunami had to do with the shifting energies of earth and the process to align the light grid and clear the ascension pathways for the next 7 year cycle, the great nanosecond of enlightenment for earth. In this event, there were many multiple layers of free will choice on the planetary, national, local and individual levels. Let us say that there were those who chose to aid and assist their fellow humans in any way possible, thereby using a situation of crisis to choose Love. And there were those who used this situation to choose fear and opportunistic manipulation for self-aggrandizement. This is important, for it is an example of why certain energies are allowed to come to the planet without being entirely cleared of negative influences: for ultimately, a soul must make a free will choice in order to fully be in the Light.

If Light were a given, without conscious choice, it would not be of such great value. It is the free will element that counts for a soul’s progress. And to complete the example and to show you how much light is reigning, you will know that those choosing love in the tsunami far outnumber and outweighed those choosing manipulation and fear. This is a very great sign of the times. Never before has such a great concerted and organized outpouring of love occurred within this last 144,000 year cycle. Even at the fall of the great civilization Atlantis, the mentality was largely that of "every person for himself". And while this mentality served to protect and preserve some of the secrets of Atlantis, it did no great service for humanity as a whole (a different topic). So you see, there is a purpose for the allowing of manipulated energies coming into planetary realities of ascension and alignment."

Secondarily:

"Many spiritual people still like to see themselves as victims. This is the turning point. These people (subconsciously) enjoy being "attacked" and "manipulated" as helpless beings in the realm of unconscious. For it is your own thought pattern which calls this very way of experiencing into reality. If you believe that you are in some way a victim, where forces of dark can use you without your free will choice, these things will continue to have power over you, for you so allow it. If, on the other hand, you wish to acknowledge that as a divine soul, you have been a co-creator in all that has come to pass, you step off the wheel and cycle of victim-hood and onto the spiral of Responsibility or Self-Determination. Do you understand? We see that you may wish to contemplate this and explore some of the seeming inconsistencies within this very discourse. For this is the paradox, you are both cause and effect. Just as is the Creator. It is not in focusing on one aspect of this dichotomy that you can transcend it. It is on balancing the two into one, or expanding the two into three, that you become truly enlightened, balanced and whole."

We wish to close this discourse by telling you that the star beings are already here with you. These beings have the greatest respect and love for humanity and wish to come to aid and assist in your progress towards ascension and enlightenment. They wish to share their technologies of light with you in peace and in the spirit of sharing and serving. However, they will not appear in 3D form when the vibration of fear around the planet is so high. For they understand that this would be detrimental to global peace. They do not wish to cause mass hysteria and violence. Thus, they continue to work with those of you on the inner realm who are calling their work into reality, through the unveiling of vibrational energy work and healing, through the bringing into reality of subtle energy forms that realign your energies with the Divine Mind, and through the intentional choice to Love and stand in Truth at all times.

When the time is right, they will appear, and those of you on the path of light and love will have much experience in making the free will choice to Love. You will not make the choice to engage in fear of what you are unfamiliar with or do not understand, for you will have been engaging in the conscious practice of free will. You will have much experience in serving humanity through your own choice to love in every situation, both sacred and profane. You will know how to love that which you do not understand, you will (and do) know how to see beneath the surface to the Truth of all things. And the Truth of all things is this: that you must exercise your free will in impeccable right action and in so doing, you will know in your heart, the heart of Christos, that you have contributed to the ascension of earth and humanity. And the Truth of all things is also: that by doing your part which you came here to do, you participate in great love and joy in the times of exciting transition and change to a new reality. This new reality is available for all who choose the path: the return to the Source, the One, the Divine Mind, in unity, harmony and grace.

For the greatest good of all concerned,

Kuthumi, light beings of the fifth dimension and the Archangelic Command

Adonai, adonai, adonai.

Let the Light and Love and Power restore the Plan on Earth.
