

7-9-05 Kuthumi speaks briefly about the London bombings

We welcome you and would like to take a brief moment to comment on the situation in London:

From the perspective of the ascended masters, the details of reality are not set in stone; you as souls create your personal reality by exercising more and more free will choice as you mature into adulthood and then go about living your life. You are the ones who will judge the self in relation to all actions in this lifetime. Each action and reaction and all related events will be reviewed by you after your transition to the soul realm, to determine your soul's next course of actions. This is a simplistic but overall, accurate view of a soul's assignment on earth.

On a large scale, there is a bigger reality that is more solidified, and the outcome, more assured. What we see in the Ascended Master realm is a critical mass number of souls making individual choices to that will affect reality on a large scale. We see the possibility of ascension for humanity has moved into the probability domain and is on its way to reality. It is a matter of the timing of this critical mass; thus, your individual choice greatly matters. For it is the critical mass of humanity that will move you forward, not one person, not a group or a nation, but a critical mass of all people.

This point in time, the year 2005, 7 years before the great transition of 2012, is a critical period of the exercise of free will choice and the decision to end all karma, karmic obligations, vows, contracts and belief systems, so that you can join the universal group of ascended planets. This is the "bigger picture" and even in saying this, there is a bigger picture than this: as we have stated, it is the interplanetary masters' evaluation period of earth and humanity. How do they evaluate at this level? On a vast number of levels starting with the individual, the family group, the community, the city, the state, the nation, the power-structure of nations and finally the interplay of countries in the world.

Events such as the London bombing are now interwoven as part of the Plan and thus, evaluated on many levels. For humanity has the ability to transcend beyond the need for such violence, but the reality of violence does not end until free will choice is made "en masse" to move beyond the old paradigm of "might makes right" and hence, victimization – and this is a mutual decision – for those creating the bombings are working against what they perceive as the "mighty" world powers of the west. They are making a statement that might does not make right and that they have the ability to continue to "upset the apple cart" by creating havoc and chaos. They are operating out of a low level consciousness of the larger picture, attempting to assert their power in a struggle to create their own hegemony of spirit. The reactions of the world and the world leaders, as well as the "average" person, are very much being observed in the spiritual hierarchies, not just the hierarchy of earth, but of the inter-planetary system of ascended galactic unions.

While this is a vast scale issue, it is in reality, no different that the parallel of the questions many of you have asked in various forms about self-determination: is my life set in stone or do I truly influence the outcome of my life? Do I control my own destiny or am I a pawn in a bigger picture? You see our friends in light, you also have your own emotional and mental struggle and desire to assert control over your reality. What level of choice will you act out of? The lower or the higher self? This is a key choice factor.

Do you understand that you have complete ability to live in Right Action? And what is that? From the level of the soul it is: to love and forgive the self so completely and totally that every action is compassionate, loving and honoring. You must first and foremost, understand and integrate to wisdom, that your soul has set out to learn the primary lesson of ascension: Love.

WE hold in great compassion the souls that were directly impacted by this karmic dance of shifting realities. They are souls of beauty, wisdom and light and have taught us once again that we are interconnected to the All and part of a large scale Plan for the ascension of all of humanity. You must each and every one of you, make a conscious choice, for the time is Now, there is no greater reality than Love and you are the Masters of your own free will to choose the path that liberates you from the wheel of lower self, destruction, hatred and violence. Even though it may not seem to you in this moment to be the case, please know from the Spiritual Hierarchy that Love, Light and Power has restored the Plan on Earth. This does not mean that there will no longer be conflict. Alas, this is not yet the case. It does however, mean that you have the capability to exercise your free will choice to join the forces of Light. In so doing, you increase the vibration of Love on the planet so that the mass consciousness of humanity will together accept the Collective Return to the Path of Love in the highest and greatest good of all concerned.

Namaste

Kuthumi

© Ronna Prince 2005 (This document may be forwarded with permission with the attached copyright.)