

Excerpts from a Soul Path and Quantum Master Reading (final report for client, 18 pages)

by Ronna Prince, SSC

I use multiple modalities to do your reading. I use numerology and its connection to the color-energy system called Aura-Soma. I also use my extensive background in tarot and kabbalah. (Next part of report includes all background information to understand the modalities and systems used by Ronna in a session).

PART I NUMEROLOGY AND TAROT-AURA SOMA ASSOCIATIONS THE ENERGIES OF YOUR SOUL

Numerology and its associations to aura-soma can give you confirmations about who you are as a soul, the challenges you came here to explore and the gifts you have to help you overcome the challenges in your life plan.

First I will start with a brief numerology report on your birth name and birth date. The most important aspects of your original soul intention in coming to this incarnation can be seen in your birth name. Who you become later is influenced by many things, including ego and the material world.

Within your birth name, you have 2 Master Numbers: 11 and 44. A master number does not indicate mastery, but the potential to achieve great things if you stay focused on your path and commit to the lessons you are here to learn. Clients numerology is explained in detail to provide an understanding of life issues, gifts, talents and challenges. Typical length of this section is about 5 to 6 pages with aura-soma associations and tarot connections.

PART II
Ascended Master Channeling

“Risk! Risk anything! Care no more for the opinions of others, for those voices. Do the hardest thing on earth for you. Act for yourself. Face the truth.”* Katherine Mansfield

We welcome you on x-x-2009, a day 6, associated with the basic energy of Love through the integration of the Lovers. The I AM Presence of 6 Quantum Masters (Kuthumi, Serapis Bey and Sananda, with partners, Pallas Athena, Kamisis Bey and Nada), are here to address you on the trinity topic of Letting Go – Liberation – Love.

Kuthumi

Pallas Athena

Sananda-Nada

Serapis Bey

Kamisis Bey

We are all masters of Egyptian karma and much more. We begin with this statement because this is where the greatest liberation resides for you: in ancient Egypt where a part of your soul is still waiting to be liberated from self-blame, judgment, guilt and failure. The I AM Presence of Kuthumi is known to have incarnated as Thutmoses III. My divine wife was Pallas Athena, known then as Satiah. We ruled Egypt in the 18th dynasty. Thutmoses is the Son of Thoth. (His reign is usually dated from April 24, 1479 BCE to March 11, 1425 BCE)

The I AM Presence of Serapis Bey is known to have incarnated as Amenhotep I, the founder of the 18th dynasty. My sister Ahmose-Meritamun was my Great Royal Wife, an incarnation of Kamaisis Bey. (His reign is generally dated from 1526 to 1506 BC.)

The I AM Presence of Sananda also had an early Egyptian dynasty incarnation as the Pharaoh Neferefre. The name of his royal wife, Nada, is not known today. The time of this incarnation is about 2460 BCE.

We speak to you in this configuration of 6 masters of Egyptian karma because this is your place of greatest letting go. We introduce our I AM Presence in our Egyptian forms so that you may know that you are seen for who you once were, and that you may perhaps trust that we will assist you in the letting go of deeply buried unconscious guilt and grief from 5th dynasty ancient Egypt, so that you may become who you are: a teacher, a healer and a liberator in your own right.

You were a great prophetess in 5th dynasty Egypt. Your name was Asiyah. When we state this, we must show you the connection and confirmation through the vibration of number to who you were then and you are you NOW:

Do you see the connection to who you still are today? Yes, it is very clear that you come here again in great hope to attain liberation from the Karmic Wheel of 5th dynasty Egypt. Our Beloved Rosine, how much longer do you wish to suffer? Does this serve you anymore? Are you truly ready to let go of the role of victim? Do you remember why you chose the prenom Rosine? Let us see.

(note from Ronna: Bottle #100 of aura-soma is one of the most powerful – it is the Archangel Metatron, King of the Archangels and the great revealer of Truth: the theme of #100 is to look into the shadow in order to liberate it into light: it is clear/deep magenta; I will send you an attachment about this 100 energy of aura-soma. To me this means that our session is now overlighted – or protected – by the Great Archangel Metatron.)

Yes, indeed, we call upon the strength and the power of Metatron to reveal the Truth! In 5th dynasty Egypt, you were a unique sort of Prophetess. You did not “see”, but you “heard” the Divine Voice. You were highly clair-audient. You heard from the Ancient Architects of the Divine Plan. (Who are they? None other than Sanat and Venus Kumara, Lords Melchizedek and Malkuth, the Divine Director and Victoria and Thoth and Aglaia). You knew that the young Pharaoh Neferefre planned to create a great pyramid alignment on the Saquara plane. This was an alignment that had the potential to bring to earth, the Cosmic Christ frequencies of unconditional love and balance. This was 4470 years ago. This plan did not succeed and you blame yourself ENTIRELY, for the failure. This self-blame is a misalignment with karmic truth and justice. This misperception is why you do not feel powerful to create your own liberation in this lifetime. This is why you are asking for assistance through our messenger who also has ties into 5th dynasty Egypt. This information and the healing contained herein, has the potential to create the bridge between who you once were, who you are now, and who you are here to become.

You served the young Pharaoh Neferefre and his divine wife, now known as Lady Nada. You served them again as an Essene several thousands of years later (in 20 ad). You now believe, very deeply in your soul, that to Serve Christ Consciousness means to suffer (implied in 11+44 is 55, the number associated with Christ Consciousness – for you saw Christ suffer on the cross, did you not? And you left him before you knew in that lifetime, of the resurrection! Ah! Another story for another day). This in part, is why you do not fully activate and use your divine gifts. Why would you, for that matter? If to serve Christ means you will suffer and lose everything – you might as well stay in a place, as you describe it, of “my impossibility and incapacity”, “completely impossible” “lost life purpose” “not succeeding” and “not aligned”. You certainly are expert at all of the “I can not’s”. What if you become more committed to the YES, I CAN!?! Than you are to the entrenched and tetanized “No, I cannot”!?! that alone will change your destiny!

Perhaps you will find a way to liberate yourself from this misalignment and to know that to serve Christ Consciousness does not mean to sacrifice, to suffer and to stultify your energies.

In the 5th dynasty lifetime, you heard the plot to assassinate the pharaoh. Afraid for the royal family, for your family and for your life, you sought council with your husband, who is again, your husband of this lifetime. He asked you not to speak up. He asked you to remain silent and to run away with him and your young son, 10 years old at the time, to safety. He asked you not to risk everything. But you know what you said and what you did. “I cannot abandon the young pharaoh and his wife who is with child”. Your husband attempted to prevent you from leaving the house to speak to the Pharaoh’s vizier. You offered prayers and made promises that you would return safely and then, after telling what you heard, you would flee to safety with your family. You know the story. The Pharaohs’ vizier was secretly working for the sorcerers of Niuserre, and this vizier had you imprisoned. You lost everything in this lifetime and part of your soul, Asiyah, is still there, believing more in the suffering than in the grace of forgiveness. Believing that this suffering is still playing out; you still believe that you are not powerful enough to create in the New Now, the only moment for change, a different outcome.

Your soul was very conscious when you agreed to meet your husband and to birth your son into this lifetime. We can see this clearly through the numerology and aura-soma meanings of your married name: (the 6 masters now ask me to look at your married name)

#39 Aura-Soma: THE EGYPTIAN bottle: the puppeteer – healing of deepest fears

#48 – Aura-Soma: The Wings of Healing: A HEALER who must first heal herself and then, activate and clarify her life purpose

TOTAL #87 Aura-Soma: LOVE-WISDOM – healing of broken love from ancient incarnations – healing the shock-trauma of the distant past

Tarot associations: #15 – the Devil – to learn from relationship imbalance between male-female

#12 (in BOTH positions of vowels and consonants) the Hanged Man – a very long time of limbo and disempowerment. The changing point comes in the INTEGRATION of $1+2 = 3$.

#3 – the EMPRESS, the heart bottle of aura-soma, the empowered female creator, teacher, lover, healer and mother.

Finally, #6 – the lovers, the basic energy of love and the potential to balance within the male-female archetypes. An ending of the victim-tyrant relationship dynamic that is present in 15. When 15, (devil is healed, it becomes $1+5 = 6$ of the lovers.)

Do you see who you have chosen to become? And in this becoming are the very important SEEDS of karmic healing. Your soul is inestimably wise. You have made no mistakes. You see, even your car incident (the car “accident” as you refer to it) was a wake up call to your soul –for truly, there are no accidents. All involved in that wake up incident, were ultimately protected, even you. Your soul had structured this into the timelines as a potential EXIT – meaning a time when you could choose to leave this life in physical form. The agreement was that THIS TIME, no one else, including your beloved dog, would be hurt. Only you would choose. Do I stay here and fulfill my destiny towards liberation? Or do I decide “this is too difficult. I will leave and start again in another lifetime, in another time and place?” Well, we all know what you chose. For here you are! Blessed be to the Archangel Metatron who protected you in the month of January (1) in the year of our Lord Sananda Christ, of 2009, an 11 year ($2+9=11$). 11 is a Choice Point. It is a decision year for those of you on the path of awakening to your truth to end old patterns and to become who you are! You constructed this wake-up incident on the 111 crystal grids of trinity so you can choose to bridge into your full power. (See the Sananda discourses on the crystal grids of trinity, archives from March and April, 2008). Yes indeed, the outcome was very different in ancient Egypt, for all that you knew and loved and cherished was lost, your husband killed and your son taken into slavery.

Perhaps NOW you will understand why there is an emotional current of immediate reaction with your son? You are trying, unconsciously, to do everything right and to please him in this lifetime because you are acting from karmic guilt. "It is my fault that he was enslaved, it is my fault that he cannot find his way to independence in this life, it my fault that he is angry underneath the surface." And more, "I do not deserve to be his mother" (unconscious belief) and the final step deeper into your unconscious fears, "If anything goes wrong in his life, I will be to blame – what if I harm him again by my actions in service to the Divine?" Oh indeed, this is very powerful unconscious belief. You added your final question for this session just a few days ago. That question was about your son. Jeremie is dissatisfied because he knows that you cannot please him. He must find a way to liberate himself from unconscious anger and blame. All three of you have constructed the opportunity for great liberation and healing, if you will let go of old anger, bitterness and hurts from the past. What can you do? You can stop trying to please him and you must fully love and embrace yourself. You must stop trying to be a perfect mother. You must stop taking responsibility for his life and his choices. He is, as you know, the greatest gift of your life in this lifetime. But even more, he has agreed to resonate into the world at this time of critical change, the vibration of unconditional love. For your son's name numerology equals #52. #52 is the aura-soma bottle of Lady Nada, it is pink and it represents unconditional love.

Let us next address two more of your questions:

You are not able to effectively activate your soul mission as keeper of Light Pyramid technology because of the entrapped soul energy of Asiyah residing in the Unfinished Pyramid in Egypt. Secondly, the tinnitus in your ears is related to a sound disruption pattern that was used as a form of punishment for you in 5th dynasty Egypt, a punishment by the sorcerers of Nuiserre, the Djed, who successfully prevented you from warning young Pharaoh Neferefre of his impending assassination. You heard the plot to assassinate Neferefre, and in attempting to warn the advisors of the pharaoh, you were imprisoned and buried alive with a sound interference pattern projected into your cell of imprisonment and into the cellular structure of your body, concentrating on the ears and the function of clair-audience. The purpose of this was to prevent you from hearing the truth of the dark sorcerers again. You have made many vows and promises around this experience. You must liberate yourself from them in order to pursue your mission. Rest assured, we will assist you in some of this, for we must respect the time and energy of our messenger.

Note from Ronna: In one of the reference books I use: Feelings, Buried Alive Never Die, this is the emotional cause of tinnitus: 1) refusing to hear one's inner voice, 2) not wanting to listen to higher laws.

Historical Information on the 5th dynasty from Wikipedia:

During this dynasty, Egyptian religion made several important changes. The earliest known copies of funerary prayers inscribed on royal tombs (known as the Pyramid Texts) appear.

Neferefre was the first son of Neferirkare and Khentkaus II to come to the throne. He was probably preceded by Shepseskare, an ephemeral king who appears to have claimed the throne after Neferirkare. (CORRECTION: Shepseskare ruled for a few years after Neferefre and then he too was assassinated by Niuserre's sorcerers.)

The Turin King-list is too fragmentary to provide us with the length of Neferefre's reign. The highest recorded year reference is the year of the accession of this king, making it unlikely that he had a very long reign. From the few remains of the mummy that was found in his tomb, it has been determined that the king died at the age of about 22 or 23.

He built a solar-temple named Hetep-Re, which has not yet been identified, and, at Abusir, started with the building of his own pyramid complex. The complex was left unfinished.

"The shape of the tomb of Neferefra...as well as a number of other archaeological finds clearly indicate that the construction of the king's funerary monument was interrupted, owing to the unexpected early death of the king. The plan of the unfinished building had to be basically changed and a decision was taken to hastily convert the unfinished pyramid, (of which only the incomplete lowest step of the core was built), into a "square-shaped mastaba" or, more precisely, a stylized primeval hill. At the moment of the king's death neither the burial apartment was built, nor was the foundation of the mortuary temple laid."^[3]

Because of the premature death of Neferefre, his successor hastily completed work on Neferefre's pyramid at Abusir, which acquired the form of a mastaba. Although it may share the same resemblance to a mastaba tomb, it is not situated north-south, and it is not rectangular in shape, but square on all sides. Known as the "Unfinished Pyramid", it stands just seven meters high, but from the constructed portions, the walls slope at a 64° angle. Similarly to other sites of other Ancient Egyptian pyramids, the burial site of Neferefre contains more than one pyramid, and his lines up the three pyramids, similarly to the Great Pyramids. Artifacts found at the site show that the name of his pyramid was called "Divine is Neferefre's Power." All the other buildings of Neferefre's mortuary complex were erected under the reign of his brother, Nyuserre Ini. While exploring ruins of the mortuary complex, a Czech archaeological expedition discovered papyri of temple accounts, statues of the king, decorated plates and many seal prints. Pieces of mummy wrappings and bones were also found, which were discovered to be the remains of Neferefre. An anthropological analysis of his mummy reveals the king to have died in his early twenties, at between 20 and 23 years old.^[6] This evidence accords well for a king who died relatively soon into his reign and left an unfinished tomb.

There is far too much material for us to cover in this session. However, with your gifts and talents activated again in this lifetime, you will be able to see the connections with your past life as Asaiyah, the prophetess, and the information above. There are many significant connections with pyramids in this information: the unfinished pyramid, the pyramid texts, the pyramid alignments, and if you go deeper into the historical research, you will find a pyramid containing “The Sanctuary of the Knives”. This is a place associated with Niuserre – it is a place of imprisonment and suffering. Perhaps one of your roles is to energetically clear and heal this place on earth Now.

Now, to answer another question: you are emotionally moved by the death of persons at the height of their fame and power because this too, is your story from ancient Egypt. In selecting the prenom Rosine in this lifetime, you are reconnecting to the potential to be powerful once again. For the root origin of Rosine is in Rose which means “FAME” or Renown. Very clear and very simple. If you were to fully use your gifts and to become known in a larger circle as the keeper of Light Pyramid Technology, you will become more “well known”, more celebrity, if you will, but not in a television celebrity sort of a way. In the way we mean, it is célèbre, in French. It will indeed be a celebration in the realms of the Light Masters, and the Great Archangel Metatron, if you allow yourself to fulfill your soul mission and become who you are: a great keeper of the Light, a high priestess of Isis and Osiris, a prophetess and one who reads the records, like our messenger, so that others may have the potential to heal.

You perhaps now understand why you feel blocked, why you feel tension, why you feel all the impossibilities and misalignments. It is time to make a conscious choice to let that go, to liberate your soul, and to begin to fully Love all that you are.

The Ascended Masters of Egyptian karma now offer you this in healing yourself; For you see, what great good is it to know on an intellectual level these things from past lives? It serves no purpose at all unless you make the decision to integrate the information in grace and ease into your entire energy system through the power of your soul. You are the only one who can do this.

You may wish to close your eyes and imagine the persona Asiyah, who you were in this lifetime: if you do not have a clear image of her, it does not matter, you simply need to hold in your heart and mind the energy of this being who was an aspect of your soul which allowed you to learn certain lessons. Then in the Now, you state: “I Am the Soul.” With your etheric arms open wide to receive her, you may state: “I welcome you back into my spiritual heart and all of who I am now, with a great fiery passion of love. It is with great gratitude that I thank you for helping me learn the lessons of those lifetimes very perfectly.” Expand on this as your heart calls you into the cellular reality of healing in the Now. Speak to her, embrace her, care for her, love her as you. This is what she/you have been waiting for!

She may be surprised to hear from you, but you have the ultimate right to take this aspect of your own soul back to full integration in your heart center – for this is where all healing occurs, in your own heart, in an incarnated form. With the passion of great love and acceptance, forgiveness and grace, you bring this persona into your heart and give thanks for the consciousness to bring this healing to your own divine self.

Without this step of integration, in a sense this major part of your soul is still out there in the space-time continuum and is preventing you from healing. This integrative aspect of the healing can only be done by you. Next, your responsibility is to work with this soul aspect that has come back into your heart. To show her, who is you, all that you have created in this lifetime. Show her your husband, your son, your home, your friends and family, your abundance. Show her all of this in gratitude and love. In this way, she, who is you, begins to fully integrate and heal, so that she, who is you, can become fully who you are. Do this with love for yourself and gratitude for the wisdom of your soul that created all of this!

You are the one to awaken this healing of unconditional love in so many others! You are the one to love and embrace your husband in his anger. To remind him in whatever is right for him, "I am back, you have never lost me, I have not defied you. We are together again so that this time, we may grow old together and live out our lives in gratitude and joy". You are the one to love and embrace your son in his frustrations at becoming an independent man. "Thank you for choosing me to be your mother again. Thank you for trusting enough that this time, I would not leave you to slavery and to a life time of servitude. Thank you for allowing me to love you again. Thank you my son, my greatest gift. For you have taught me more than any other being that LOVE NEVER DIES. That Hope is Eternal. And that healing truly takes place in the heart. Thank you, thank you thank you."

Perhaps now, you are willing to let go of the unconscious past, to rejoice in the New Now that you have created. Perhaps now, you are liberating yourself and allowing your gifts to be used for the ascension of humanity. Perhaps now you will choose to love ALL of who you are, including Asiyah. For you have been hating a part of yourself that contains the seeds of healing. Asiyah, the Greatness of God, wished to serve, and in serving she took great risks. She stood for truth and spoke the truth. Glory be to Archangel Metatron and the celestial realms for assisting you on this day, in freeing the most powerful aspect of your soul: the Greatness of God, to combine with Rosine, in Service to the Divine One, keeper of the Light Pyramid Technologies that you were entrusted with years ago, so that NOW, you will do what you came here to do: reconstruct the light frequencies of the Unfinished Pyramids on the Saquarra plain.

In the name of the One, Blessed be the One, Blessed BY the One.

When you meet yourself again, Know who you are and Rejoice! This is the beauty of your divine soul.

Peace and joy be with you in this and all the days ahead.

Masters Kuthumi, Pallas Athena, Serapis and Kamisis Bey and Sananda – Nada.
